Case Closed

Sunday at 2:00pm in Video Room 4

Jimmy Kudo, a 17-year-old prodigy and detective who frequently worked with the police, was attacked by two members of a mysterious crime syndicate while investigating a case regarding blackmail. He was forced to take a new experimental poison that was supposed to kill him...but the drug transformed his body back into a 7-year-old. In order to hide his identity and investigate the syndicate, he adopts the pseudonym Conan Edogawa. He moves in with childhood friend Rachel Moore, whose father, Richard Moore, works as a private investigator. He enrolls at Teitan elementary school and forms the Junior Detective League with Amy Yoshida, Mitch Tsuburaya, and George Kojima. As Conan, Jimmy continues solving cases, usually by posing as Richard Moore with special gadgets, invented by his neighbor and friend, Dr. Agasa. Richard Moore, a rather inept detective, is bewildered at the rise in his case-solving abilities, but does not question this as he is more than glad about his rise in fame.
